My Clean Desk isn't a visualizer or a skinsch whatzit like Enabler. It will help you to make your desktop look cleaner than just a backdrop of some standard wallpaper. Here's what I mean: My Clean Desk offers you the possibility to set up so-called themes. This means that you can choose a different background image for each theme. Every theme will have different background color and fonts. You can name the themes yourself. To do this, simply hover your mouse cursor over the background image and click to rename. Afterwards, you can click to assign the chosen theme to a new theme group. Let's take a look at how the current list of themes looks like: You can select a different background image for every theme. You can also set a different color for each theme. You can even edit the fonts used by every theme. The current list of themes looks like this: The current list of themes looks like b7e8fdf5c8
